

Bhagavan eating Brinjal!

This is a regular practice at Vishal Kshhatrriya's house, where he offers food to Sri Bhagavan and Amma before his every meal.

So one day, as usual when he offered food prepared with Brinjal (Brinjal is considered to be Bhagavan's favorite vegetable) to Amma Bhagavan, after few minutes he and his family members saw a Big Bite eaten away by Bhagavan!

Just take a look at the miracle pic!

This is not happening just to one devotee's house, but in every house, wherever Amma and Bhagavan's shrimurti is placed, in those devotees life miracles are on - going happening throughout the day. For Amma Bhagavan devotees, the Sri Murti (the photo of Amma Bhagavan) is not an ordinary laminated photo. For them through their personal experience, they have seen Bhagavan coming out of Sri Murti, sometimes Bhagavan answers their prayers by nodding His Head, in some people house Amma's walks around their house and helps them in their day to day activity - for proof they hear Amma's Anklets noise (golusu), and many more variety of experiences.

The Antaryamin Bhagavan or The Personal God gets awakened when he is loved by his devotees and god is not an abstract word or a form to them, but has become a Family Member to him.

A Quote from Bhagavan's Mahakvakya - "It is not enough to know that I exist, you must know Me personally."
